

extra innings consignment

The purpose of Extra Innings Consignment is to connect local community members that need to buy/sell/trade their sporting and other extracurricular equipment in a friendly and affordable environment. We want to help you reduce clutter in your home and have a positive impact on your budget!

1. Any individual or local group/ team leader may participate in the sale.

- You may hold two separate accounts - one for your team/organization and one for your personal items.
- Groups or teams might consider bringing in sets of matching dance costumes, extra uniforms from a season of play, equipment that has been outgrown, etc.
- There are no Participation Fees.

2. Split & Payment.

- Split will be 30/70 if you tag and price your own items. Please price your items according to their age and condition.
- Split will be 50/50 if you would like us to tag and price for you.
- Payment will be sent within one week of end of sale.

3. What to Bring and How to Bring It.

- Items should be in new to good used condition - if you wouldn't buy it based on current condition, don't try to sell it. Please clean your items as much as possible/reasonable.
- Items that are damaged and may be unsafe for wear, play, competition, etc, will not be accepted.
- Please price items in dollar increments when possible or at the very least in fifty cent increments. Items priced otherwise will be rounded up or down.
- Please place items that can go on hangers, on hangers. Wire hangers take up less room, but are not required - pants and other items that may fall should be pinned to the hanger whenever possible. Other items, do what you can to package/group them in a presentable way and we will do our best to display them well for you.
- Please use Index Cards or similar size card stock for your tags.
- We will have a 'bargain section' for items that may be in 'ok' condition but still useable - examples would be a stained pair of baseball pants that could still be used for practice, baseballs that are damaged or waterlogged that could be used for crafts. These items should not be priced accordingly.
- Weapons will not be accepted with the exception of martial arts sparring gear.
- Please try to bag and/or tie any loose items together. Baggies, ribbon, zip ties, etc, are all great ways to accomplish this. We will have a limited amount of these items on hand for purchase at drop off.
- If your are unsure as to whether your items are appropriate, please don't hesitate to contact us. Examples of acceptable items include: Baseball/Softball, Soccer, BMX/Motorcross, Wrestling, Lacrosse, Basketball, Dance, Football, Boy/Girl Scouts, Running attire, Martial Arts, volleyball, cheerleading, hockey, gymnastics, local school and team spirit wear, college and pro spirit wear.

4. Discount Times.

- Items not marked ND (No Discount) will be sold at 50% off during the indicated discount times for the sale. For a one day sale, this will be about a two hour window.

5. Booth Space for Businesses, crafters, and service providers.

- We will be offering advertising and booth space to businesses and crafters that cater to this market.
- You may leave items for us to sell or man your booth during the sale.
- Please contact us for pricing and more information.
- Space will be first come, first serve and based on space availability.
